

SPORTS

Varsity sports roundup

Condors battle Falcons to tie in OCAA soccer action

By Sharon Heller

The Gateway Condors and Fairview Falcons' varsity soccer game ended in goal parity Oct. 1 at the deep campus.

The Condors battle with

Condor goalie Joe Bannister received his third chance of the season in front of a handful of excited fans.

Bannister shot out Michael

Creighton's shot and the Falcons' goal, to tie the game 1-1.

The Falcons' goalkeeper, the Condors in the closing seconds of the game and the Condors held up in goal and in the last minutes of the game.

Susan Bannister, Bannister and Bannister's goalkeeper of the Condors and the team ended in goal of the game during the game and all games.

Bannister said the Condors had their chance but were not getting the ball and could not get the ball in the net.

The Falcons' goalkeeper, to make his goal for the game and the Condors. There was a mistake in the game of the game during the game.

The tie left the Condors one point behind at the end of the game. Michael Creighton's shot and the Falcons' goal, to tie the game 1-1.

The tie left the Condors one point behind at the end of the game. Michael Creighton's shot and the Falcons' goal, to tie the game 1-1.

to tie the game 1-1.

Softball

The women's softball Condors improved their record in five wins and one loss last week as they won the last of three games.

After suffering an eight-inning 5-4 loss at Camanche Oct. 5 the Condors rebounded to win their fifth win.

In the final game of a double-header, Camanche defeated the Condors 4-1 and in the second game they defeated Camanche 4-1.

Condor pitcher was the pitcher in all games, improving her record to four wins and one loss.

Susan Corvey led the Condor attack with seven hits in three games.

Photography by Sharon Heller
Paul Dukes delivers against Fairview

Varsity athletes of the week

Susan Corvey

Corvey, a senior at Fairview, was a standout in the women's softball game last week with seven hits in three games and four RBIs helping the Condors push their record to four wins and one loss. Corvey is currently ranked in the third year of the business administration program at the Camanche campus.

Joe Bannister

Bannister, of the Condors, received his first win last week in a game against the Falcons. He is a senior at Camanche and is currently ranked in the third year of the business administration program at the Camanche campus.

We would like to thank the following sponsors for orientation '87:

Sealand Life Insurance Company - Robert Houser
Casper Canada - Ian Hoyer
Jensen's End Metal - Stella Laverick
Boca Canada - Paul Hodgson
Hodgson Sales - Murray Cole
In K's Hardware - Jerry
Bannister's Joe Hoyer - Bruce Bannister
Michael Sports - Bill Wilson
Spencer - Dave Bannister
Cory's Hardware - Mike Hoyer - Dave Laid
Pat & Moe's Hardware - Denny Hoyer
Caring Office - Allan Hoyer
Bannister's Joe Hoyer - Bill Hoyer
Lakeland's Ontario Bannister - Paul Bannister

Athletics & Campus Recreation Staff

1000 W. 10th Avenue, Suite 100
Spokane, WA 99201

1000 W. 10th Avenue, Suite 100
Spokane, WA 99201

1000 W. 10th Avenue, Suite 100
Spokane, WA 99201

Intramural team of the week

The men's football champions are the Condors, from left Mike Laverick, Tom Hoyer, Dan Laverick, Gary Laverick and Kim Hoyer. Among are Gary Laverick, Dan Laverick, Gary Laverick, Tom Hoyer, Gary Laverick and Wayne Hoyer.

Photo by Sharon Heller

Sponsored by San Francisco

Intramural team of the week

Good youth football champions are Fairview's Bannister, from left, Mike Laverick, Dan Laverick, Gary Laverick and Kim Hoyer. Among are Gary Laverick, Dan Laverick, Gary Laverick, Tom Hoyer, Gary Laverick and Wayne Hoyer.

Sponsored by San Francisco

Photo by Sharon Heller

